RELEASE OF WOUNDED PRISONERS State's Attorney for State; Wing, Lund Their Report of the Rebel Army

DAVIS IN FEEBLE HEALTH.

ACCOUNT OF THE REBELS CONDITION.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 7. The Steamer Express met this morning by agreement the rebel Steamer Northumberland with a flag of truce, and brought down fiftyseven wounded prisoners, released yesterday at Richmond, who were taken at Bull run. They report 5000 troops in Richmond; that the Rebel army on the Potomac is supposed to number over 150,000; that apprehensions of an attack on the seab ard causes great anxiety. Governor Brown of Georgia has recalled five regiments to defend that State. The Rebel troops are suffering for want of medicines, clothing and certain kinds of food. Beauregard was at Manussas. Jeff. Davis returned to Richmond on Saturday Shepaul Lambs-1996 at market-Prices in lots, $1,50 last in feeble health. Speculation was rife as to his successor. Seventeen of the released prisoners who are unable to go home have been sent to Old Point Hospital. The others go North to-night. Mr. Ely has been declared a prisoner of war by the Rebel Congress, and is still confined in Richmond. The wounded prisoners were released for the reason that their wants could not be supplied. They have been obliged to sleep on the floor during their imprisonment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8. Dispatches in the Richmond Examiner report Breckenridge was in Virginia on the 3d. He will resign his seat in the Senate and issue an address to the people of Kentucky, and ac-

LADIES GAITER BOOTS. A little glove stirs up my heart as tides stir up the ocean. A snow-white muslin, when it fits, makes many a curious notion
All sorts of lady fixins thrill my feelings, as they'd orter,

> And just to put you on your guard, I'll give you, short and brief, A small hotel experience Which filled my heart with grief: Last summer, at the Pavilion Hotel, I stopped a week or more, And marked two " boot-ees" every morn Before my neighbor's door; Two boots with patent leather tips, Two boots which seemed to say, "An angel trots around in us," They stole my heart away; And often in my nightly dreams They swept before my face, A lady growing out of them As flowers grow from a vase. But ah! one morn I saw a sight Which struck me like a stone, Some other name was on the book Those books were not alone! A great tall pair of other boots Was standing by their side, And off they walked one afternoon

And with them walked-a bride.

Those Gaiter Boots came from J. C. PAGE.

For Costiveness, Irregula, any and Debu " of the Digestive Organs, Inducing Headache, assitude, Nervousness, General Prostration of the Mind and Body, Paralysis, &c.

Amoment's reflection ought to convince a sensible man A of the folly and danger of constantly dosing with Cathartic Medicines. The practice is pernicious and suicidal. An experience of forty years has taught me that the constantly increasing evils of indigestion are fearfully aggravated by the too free use of Cathartics. The American people are fast becoming a nation of dyspepties by their artificial modes of life. Drastic Cathartics increase the irritability, and prostrate the strength of the digestive organs digestive organs

The Pills now offered are especially designed to allay the ritis now enered are especially designed to analy this irritability, and at the same time to invigorate and strengthen all the functions of digestion, while they are gently laxative. They are anodyne, tonic and laxative. They are so mild and invigorating that one is not remind-ed by any disagreeable effects that he has taken medicine. Business Men, Students, Professional Men, Females, and all persons leading a confined or sedentary life, should try them.

is precisely what its name indicates, for while Is precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of ail. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful traic, and yet so perfectly as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and I cace soothe the weakest Stomach and tone up the digestive organs, and aliay all nervous and other iritation.

weakest Stomach and tone up the digestive organs, and aliay all nervous and other iritation. It is also perfectly exhita rating in its elbets and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables and those thoroughy combining powerful tonic and soothing propertiess, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical world, Example as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis indi-estion, Pryspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgin, Patplitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hydoson dria, Night Sweats, Languor, Guddiness, and Mitted Cales of Cases, so Gentrially Litel if unattended to in time, called Fennis Wakaesses and Irregularities. Also, Liver Derangements of the United States, and Liver Complaints. Disasces of the Kinneys, Scalding of Incommence of the United States, Pain in the Back, Sole, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colus, Hacking and Continent Corgin. Emailian, Dilliculty of Blocating, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only care the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks exising from Missmatle Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attack ed. And as it acts directly and persistently upon the bilary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the exerctions and secretions of the system, it will infalliby prevent any deliterious consequences following upon charg of climate and water; hence all travelers should have a bottle with them, and all should take a table spoonful at least before eating. As if prevents costiveness strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers, literary men. And all laddes not accustomed to much out door exercise should always use it. If they will they will find an agree was use it.
